

Help Wanted

Page County Communications is accepting applications for a 911 Telecommunicator for the County Emergency Communication Center. This person will be responsible for answering 911 calls and dispatching agencies for Law Enforcement, Fire, and Emergency Medical Services; also answer non-emergency calls for County and City Law Enforcement, Fire, and EMS agencies in Page County; Operate and handle radio traffic; requests for information and assistance; and enter and update information into the CAD and Teletype systems. Must be able to multi-task and meet all training and certification requirements of the State of Iowa.

Applications can be obtained online from the Page County Courthouse website or from Page County Communications,
200 S. 15th Suite E. Clarinda, Iowa 51632