

MEDIA RELEASE: Updated polling place reminders coming soon to Page County voters' mailboxes

Clarinda – Page County Auditor, Melissa Wellhausen, reminds voters that some polling places have changed due to recent redistricting across the state.

Auditor Wellhausen states “If you are unsure of where your polling place is please call the Auditor’s Office at 712-542-3219. My staff and I are here to help make sure your voting experience is positive and that begins with knowing where your polling place is on Election Day.”

Page County is working with the Iowa Secretary of State to send a postcard to every registered voter in the county, not just those whose polling place has changed, starting May 18. Under Iowa law, notices are required to be sent to impacted voters between 20 days and seven days prior to the primary election and again prior to the general election.

Iowans can also look up their polling place online
