CERTIFICATION STATEMENT: I understand that I assume full responsibility for the accuracy of the statements on this form, and I understand the County General Assist. office will use these statements to determine my eligibility for general assistance. If I provide false statements on this application, or give false statements to the General Assistance worker, this can be considered fraud and may be referred to the County Attorney and/or result in permanent ineligibility of future assistance. I am also aware that giving false information or failure to provide information required for application will result in a denial of assistance and suspension of eligibility for twenty four (24) months. I am aware that this general assistance information may be verified and investigated. I am aware of my responsibility to report any changes in my income which is defined as: cash, gross wages, gross salaries, Social Security, pensions, rents, interest, FIP/ADC, cash payments, child support, unemployment or other monies available for the support of my household.

I ACKNOWLEDGE I HAVE RECEIVED A COPY OF THE HENRY COUNTY NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICE.

RELEASE OF INFORMATION: I hereby authorize the following Henry Co. offices: CPC, Veteran's Affairs, Public Health, Auditor, Treasurer, Attorney, Sheriff and further, DHS, Comm. Action, IA Workforce, Police Depart., Social Security, landlords, utility providers, current or previous employers, probation, parole officers and law enforcement officials, Child Support Recovery and _____ to release confidential information concerning my personal situation to the Henry Co. General Assistance office if such information is deemed necessary. I also authorize Henry Co. General Assistance to release to the previously named agencies and persons, confidential information, if such information is deemed necessary. Release is to be effective for one (1) year from date of signature.

LEGAL CLAIM: I understand that the Code of Iowa provides that "Any county having expended any money for relief or support of a poor person, under the provisions of this chapter, may recover the same from any of his kindred mentioned herein, from such poor person should he become able or from his estate; from relatives by action brought within two years from the payment of such expenses, from such person's estate by filing the claim as provided by law." (252.13)

DISPOSITION: You will receive a decision as to the disposition of your application in writing within ten (10) working days unless more information is required. If you do not agree with the action of the County General Assistance, you may appeal the decision.

 - q. any appeal to the district court shall be allowed by the applicant from the Board's decision within the time and by the manner and procedures established under the Iowa Administrative Procedures Act, Chapter 17A, Code of Iowa.

Your Information. Your Rights. Our Responsibilities.

This notice describes Henry County may use or disclose protected health information or personally identifiable information about you and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Get a copy of your paper or electronic medical information
- Correct your paper or electronic medical information
- Request confidential communication
- Ask us to limit the information we share
- Get a list of those with whom we've shared your information
- Get a copy of this privacy notice
- Choose someone to act for you
- File a complaint if you believe your privacy rights have been violated

Your Choices

You have some choices in the way that we use and share information as we:

- Tell family and friends about your condition
- Provide disaster relief
- Provide mental health care

Our Uses and Disclosures

We may use and share your information as we:

- Authorize funding for you
- Run our organization
- Help with public health and safety issues
- Comply with the law
- Work with a medical examiner or funeral director
- Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests
- Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

Your Rights

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get an electronic or paper copy of your information

- You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical information and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.
- We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Ask us to correct your information

- You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this. We may deny your request if we did not create the information you want changed.
- We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications

- You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.
- We will say “yes” to all reasonable requests.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

- You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care.

Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared information

- You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we’ve shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.
- We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We’ll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

Choose someone to act for you

- If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
- We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

- You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on page 1.
- You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
- We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes

- Sale of your information
- Most sharing of psychotherapy notes

Our Uses and Disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information?

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Run our organization

We can use and share your health information to authorize funding, improve your access to services, and contact you when necessary.

Example: We use health information about you to manage your treatment and services.

How else can we use or share your health information?

We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see:

www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html.

Help with public health and safety issues

We can share health information about you for certain situations such as:

- Preventing disease
- Helping with product recalls
- Reporting adverse reactions to medications
- Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence
- Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone’s health or safety

Comply with the law

We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we’re complying with federal privacy law.

Work with a medical examiner or funeral director

We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director when an individual dies.

Address workers’ compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests

We can use or share health information about you:

- For workers’ compensation claims
- For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official
- With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law
- For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.

- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html.

Changes to the Terms of this Notice

We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request, in our office, and on our web site.
