

2017 Henry County Jail PREA Report

Two alleged PREA Violations were reported in 2017.
Henry County PREA Investigator's conducted investigations on both complaints and determined that they were both unfounded.

An alleged PREA Violation was reported by a Henry County Inmate during time in which they were being housed in another county for Henry County.
That county investigated the incident. This incident was determined unfounded.